

ST JOHN'S VOICES

Friendly, welcoming and ambitious, St John's Voices is one of the youngest and most ambitious choirs in Cambridge. Formed in 2014 in order to extend the College's extraordinary tradition of choral excellence, the choir has quickly developed an enviable reputation for exciting projects and high-quality music-making

- Evensongs once a week
 - Concerts in Cambridge, London and beyond
 - College feasts & dinners
 - Annual tours, previously to Vienna, Hong Kong & Singapore
 - A recording with Naxos coming soon

To join St John's Voices, please book an audition between 1pm and 4pm on Monday October 2nd at sjv.youcanbook.me. If you can't make that time please contact Graham Walker on ghw22 to arrange another appointment
