

St John's College

Chapel Services

Lent Term 2013

St John's College Chapel

Since the early thirteenth century the site of St John's College has had a place of Christian worship. The original Chapel, whose ruins may still be viewed in First Court, belonged to a hospital for the poor and infirm and was retained when the College was founded in 1511. Our present Chapel, built in 1869 by Sir George Gilbert Scott, continues this faithful offering of prayer with regular services enriched by the College's outstanding choral tradition.

Members of the public are welcome at all Choral Services, printed in BOLD TYPE in this list.

Surplices are provided in the Chapel, and are worn by members of the College on Sundays, at Evensong on Saturdays, and on other holy days as marked in this list with the letter S.

Choral Evensong

Our service of Evensong follows that set down in the Church of England's Book of Common Prayer in 1662. The service is sung by the Choir, of men and boys, who study either at the College or at the College School and may be followed on the cream cards in the stalls. The words of the psalm appointed for the day and sung by the Choir may be found in the Book of Common Prayer (usually red). Please join in singing the hymns, usually found in the green New English Hymnal.

Our Old Testament lessons this term are taken from the Book of Genesis, our New Testament lessons from the Gospel of St John. In accordance with the spirit of the Book of Common Prayer, (a portion of) the Morning Psalms are sung during the first half of term, and (a portion of) the Evening Psalms during the second half.

On Sunday evenings as part of our Lent reflection and sermon series, we will make our way through the Lord's Prayer, taking an in depth and questioning look each week at a section of the prayer our Saviour taught us to pray, in our sermon series 'When you pray, pray like this...'. Further details may be found on the Chapel website:

www.job.cam.ac.uk/services-and-sermons

Sung Eucharist

The service may be followed in the purple Sung Eucharist booklets. Please join in all words marked in bold. Our readings are printed on a separate white sheet, which may be collected from the entrance to the Chapel. Hymns are found in the green hymn book in the stalls.

All who are communicant members of their own church are most welcome to receive Communion.

Listen Online

A Chapel service is webcast each week throughout the year. You can listen online at:

 The Dean is currently serving as President of the College.*

The clergy are always glad to arrange to see members of the College.

The Chapel Clerk can be contacted by telephone on 01223 338676 or by e-mail at chapel@joh.cam.ac.uk

Further details of the Chapel and Choir are available on the College website www.joh.cam.ac.uk & www.sjcchoir.co.uk

The Chapel is fitted with a hearing induction loop for those who are hearing-impaired.
Simply switch your hearing aid to the T position.

Our presence at services is a prayer; please respect the traditions of the Chapel and of all those who worship with you. If you would like to know more about the Christian faith or the Church of England, please speak to one of the clergy.

Please do not use cameras, tape recorders or videos in the Chapel.

Please do not bring food and drink into the Chapel.

The work of the Chapel is entirely supported by the College and no collections are taken during services. However, the student Chapel Committee supports a number of charities each term and an alms dish is provided for donations on the table by the Chapel gates; please give generously.
