

St John's College

Chapel Services

Lent Term 2007

Not to be taken away

St John's College Chapel

Since the early thirteenth century the site of St John's College, first as a monastic house and then as the College, has had a place of Christian worship. Our long tradition of worship is continued with regular services enriched by the College's outstanding choral tradition.

Members of the public are welcome at all Choral Services. These are printed in BOLD TYPE in this list.

Surplices are provided in the Chapel, and are worn by members of the College on Sundays, at Evensong on Saturdays, and on other days marked in this list with the letter S.

Evensong

The service of Evensong can be followed on the white cards in the stalls. The words of the psalm appointed for the day will be found in the prayer book and the words of the hymn in the green hymn book.

In accordance with the spirit of the Book of Common Prayer (a portion of) the Morning Psalms are sung during the first half of term, and (a portion of) the Evening Psalms during the second half.

Sung Eucharist

The service can be followed in the red Sung Eucharist booklets. The epistle and Gospel reading will be found on the separate white sheet. These can be found on a table at the entrance to the Chapel. Hymns are found in the green hymn book in the stalls.

All those who are communicant members of their own church are most welcome to receive communion.

No collections are taken during services.

An alms dish is provided for a retiring collection as you leave the Chapel.

Cover picture – Thomas Clarkson (1760-1846), Abolitionist and Member of the College

This year marks the 200th anniversary of the passing of the Abolition of the Slave Trade Act. Two of the leading abolitionists, William Wilberforce and Thomas Clarkson were members of St John's College and over the weekend 17-18 February 2007 there will be a number of activities to mark their achievement and to reflect on issues of slavery today.

The Chapel is fitted with a hearing induction loop for those who are hearing-impaired.
Simply switch your hearing aid to the T position.

Our presence at services is a prayer; please respect the traditions of the Chapel and of all those who worship with you.

Please do not use cameras, tape recorders or videos in the Chapel. Please do not bring food and drink into the Chapel.
