Year 12 Archaeology Study Day – 23rd March 2015

Venue: The Divinity School, St John's College Dress: school uniform, or informal Bring: pen and paper

Programme

9.45-10.00	Registration and Welcome
10.00-10.30	Introduction : Studying Archaeology at Cambridge Dr Kate Spence (Lecturer in Egyptian Archaeology)
10.30-11.00	Lecture : Archaeological Excavation: the filthy past Dr Yağmur Heffron (Research Fellow in Anatolian Archaeology)
11.00-11.30	Small-group workshops
11.30-12.00	Lecture : The Secrets of Archaeological Science Dr Tamsin O'Connell (Lecturer in BioArchaeology)
12.00-12.45	Buffet lunch
12.45-13.15	Lecture : Dealing with Dead Languages Dr Martin Worthington (Lecturer in Assyriology)
13.15-13.45	Small-group workshops
13.45-14.15	Lecture : Bodies of Evidence: Human Skeletons in Archaeology Dr Ronika Power (Research Fellow in Biological Anthropology)
14.15-14.45	Talk : Making a competitive application to Cambridge Megan Goldman Roberts (Access Officer, St John's College)
14.45-15.30	Mock Interviews with current students
15.30-16.15	Tour of St John's College

For the small-group workshops, a timetable will be issued specifying which topics will be discussed where, when, and by and with whom.

Participants will, in advance of the Study Day, be asked to read and think about two articles relating to the topics of the small-group workshops.