

St John's College, Cambridge

CONSTABLE ESSAY PRIZE

Submissions are invited from members of the College, who are undergraduates (including affiliated students) at the time of issue of this notice, for the Constable Essay Prize (value £120).

Candidates may submit works of scholarship or the results of any research that they have undertaken on a topic within the physical sciences, but they must first gain approval for the essay title from the Director of Studies in Natural Sciences (Physical), Dr Paul Wood (via his secretary, Miss Jo Ash, j.ash@joh.cam.ac.uk).

Writings, which should be accompanied by a declaration that the submission is the candidate's own original and unaided work, and that it has not been submitted in any University examination nor for any University Prize or other College Prize, must be sent to the Master by 10th October 2014.
