Chapel Services

Michaelmas Term 2013

St John's College Chapel

Since the early thirteenth century the site of St John's College has had a place of Christian worship. The original Chapel, whose ruins may still be viewed in First Court, belonged to a hospital for the poor and infirm and was retained when the College was founded in 1511. Our present Chapel, built in 1869 by Sir George Gilbert Scott, continues this faithful offering of prayer with regular services enriched by the College's outstanding choral tradition.

Members of the public are welcome at all Choral Services, printed in BOLD TYPE in this list.

Surplices are provided in the Chapel, and are worn by members of the College on Sundays, at Evensong on Saturdays, and on other holy days as marked in this list with the letter S.

Choral Evensong

Our service of Evensong follows that set down in the Church of England's Book of Common Prayer in 1662. The service can be followed on the cream cards in the stalls. On Tuesdays to Sundays it is sung by the College Choir of men and boys, who study either at the College or at the College School. On Mondays Evensong is sung by the College's new mixed-voice choir, St John's Voices. The words of the psalm appointed for the day and sung by the Choir may be found in the Book of Common Prayer (usually red). Please join in singing the hymns, usually found in the green New English Hymnal.

In accordance with the spirit of the Book of Common Prayer (a portion of) the Morning Psalms are sung during the first half of term, and (a portion of) the Evening Psalms during the second half. Our lessons at Evensong this term comprise selections from the Prophets and the entirety of the Gospel of St Mark. Considered by most scholars the earliest of the Gospels, St Mark's narrative is wonderfully dramatic with a real sense of immediacy to its episodic structure, and yet this is no naive storytelling as key theological themes are developed to support the needs of disciples in the way of the Cross.

'The News' is the title of our Sunday evening sermon series this term. Guest preachers involved in faith and the media will look at the content and the way we receive the news in British national newspapers, on the radio, television, on line and in tabloid journalism with reference to how this shapes an understanding of our contemporary world and our Christian faith. Further details are available on the Chapel website:

www.job.cam.ac.uk/chapel\_and\_choir/sermons

Sung Eucharist

The service may be followed in the yellow Sung Eucharist booklets. Please join in all words marked in bold. Our readings are printed on a separate white sheet, which may be collected from the entrance to the Chapel. Hymns are found in the green hymn book in the stalls.

The Chapel is part of the Church of England, within the world-wide Anglican Communion, and welcomes all Christians who are communicant members of their own church to receive Communion with us.

Listen Online

A Chapel service is webcast on a weekly basis throughout the year. Webcast services are available from midday on Tuesdays. You can listen online at:

The clergy are always glad to arrange to see members of the College.

The Chapel Clerk can be contacted by telephone on 01223 338676 or by e-mail at chapel@joh.cam.ac.uk

Further details of the Chapel and Choir are available on the College website www.joh.cam.ac.uk & www.sjchoir.co.uk

The Chapel is fitted with a hearing induction loop for those who are hearing-impaired.
Simply switch your hearing aid to the T position.

Our presence at services is a prayer; please respect the traditions of the Chapel and of all those who worship with you. If you would like to know more about the Christian faith or the Church of England, please speak to one of the clergy.

Please do not use cameras, tape recorders or videos in the Chapel.

Please do not bring food and drink into the Chapel.

The work of the Chapel is entirely supported by the College and no collections are taken during services. However, the student Chapel Committee supports a number of charities each term and an alms dish is provided for donations on the table by the Chapel gates; please give generously.
