

ST JOHN'S COLLEGE
UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

2019 Lady Margaret Beaufort Intellectual Connections Competition

This new competition is for students at St John's to work together and propose a major theme and event for Lent Term 2019 that will promote intellectual connections across the College.

The theme and event should seek to engage students and academics at St John's in addressing a significant intellectual issue from different subject perspectives.

A prize of £100 plus a plated book will be awarded to each student in the team that proposes the successful theme and event for the 2019 Lady Margaret Beaufort Intellectual Connections Competition.

The winning team will have support from the College in hosting the main event.

Entries to the Competition will be assessed by the College Tutors.

To enter the competition:

Please complete the attached form and return it to Senior.Tutor@joh.cam.ac.uk by Tuesday 6th November 2018 at 12 noon.

Your email should be entitled Lady Margaret Beaufort Competition.

2019 Lady Margaret Beaufort Intellectual Connections Competition

1. Names and Subjects of students in the team:

2. Title proposed for the Intellectual Connections Theme in Lent Term 2019:

3. How will this theme promote intellectual connections amongst students and academics working in different subjects at St John's?

4. Please provide details of the main event your team will organise and host to promote intellectual connections across the College.

5. Please provide a budget for the main event proposed.