St John’s College Chapel

Holy Week and Easter 2021
Welcome

In normal circumstances there are no Holy Week and Easter services in the College Chapel for Holy Week and Easter because it is the vacation. This year, however, when the circumstances are anything but normal, we have decided to offer a sequence of services sung by the men of the Choir. These will be uploaded each day as webcasts on the Choir’s webpage:

https://www.sjcchoir.co.uk/listen/webcasts

We are delighted that you are able to join us in this. Orders of service will be uploaded also, in pdf form.

Since the early thirteenth century the site of St John’s College has had a place of Christian worship. The original Chapel, whose ruins may still be viewed in First Court, belonged to a hospital for the poor and infirm and was retained when the College was founded in 1511. Our present Chapel, built in 1869 by Sir George Gilbert Scott, continues this faithful offering of prayer with regular services enriched by the College’s outstanding choral tradition.

The Chapel is part of the Church of England, within the world-wide Anglican Communion, and welcomes everyone.

Further details of the Chapel and Choirs are available on their websites:
