About the College

St. John’s College is one of the largest of the University of Cambridge’s 31 colleges. Colleges are where students live, eat and socialise, and receive small group teaching sessions. St John’s has about 900 students, 160 Fellows (that is, resident academics who teach and research), and about 250 staff.

The buildings and grounds of St John’s are a magnificent environment in which to work, but it is the people of St John’s who give the place its unique identity. Diversity, independence and intellectual excellence make it a dynamic place in which people can thrive. Read more about St John’s on the College’s website: www.joh.cam.ac.uk.

Porters Department

The Porters provide a welcoming, helpful and professional reception service to members of the College and other visitors. Through regular patrols they ensure the safety of those living, working in or visiting the College and respond to emergencies and other events to ensure the security of the College buildings and grounds. They provide additional services as required to ensure the efficient and effective running of the College.
